

Connexus Opens New Downtown Cincinnati Branch Move Provides Enhanced Member Service & Accessibility

Wausau, WI (July 8, 2015) – Connexus Credit Union has relocated its downtown Cincinnati location to 201 E. Fourth Street in the Omnicare Building. The new branch opened for business on June 29th, providing more convenient access for its membership base than the former location at 525 Vine Street.

Connexus and the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce held a ribbon cutting ceremony, followed by a reception for key local supporters, in the new branch on July 7th. J. David Christenson, Connexus President and CEO, attended the Grand Opening and commented, “We are thrilled to move into such a convenient, well-designed facility that’s just steps away from two of our biggest member groups in the Cincinnati area. We’re looking forward to welcoming our members and everyone working in and around the Omnicare Center with some special events in a few weeks.”

The 950 square foot facility is located in Suite 140 on the ground floor, near the northeast building entrance. The branch provides the full array of Connexus products and services, ranging from high-yield checking and deposit accounts as well as auto, personal and home loans with attractive interest rates and payment options. Connexus also maintains a branch in Fairfield, OH.
